PLUSCH

The Pilotis sofa designed by Metrica for Cor, is now available in India through Plusch. Designed to be the center of attention in any domestic space, Pilotis is a seating furniture concept with an architectural periphery that emerges, almost of its own accord, from a variety of round or square side tables, shelf-like spaces and stools. Pilotis's best feature though is the optional extension that increases the height of the back and armrest. One can choose from four different seating and lying elements, combinations of tables and shelves. While the seats are upholstered in fabric or leather, the side tables and shelf spaces are made of wood or lacquer in custom colours. The feet are available in black chrome, glossy chrome or in lacquered finish.

THE PURPLE TURTLES

UNCork and Coloured Cement are the two latest ranges launched by the brand. UNCork uses the outer layer of the unconventional yet beautiful material cork to create these lights. Since cork is extremely lightweight with a very low conductivity of heat, it is a perfect lighting option. The Coloured Cement collection is inspired by the landscapes that change colours during seasons. The effervescent gradient of blue pigmented feather cement is wrapped around the simple form depicting continuity in discontinuity to give an abstract landscape effect while the deep red pigment along with white and grey feather cement base depicts the fallen autumn leaves over a concrete road.

URBAN LADDER

The newly launched Eleanor & Louise collection belongs to the French Country style, which is synonymous with relaxed, sophisticated living. While Eleanor represents substance and style, elegance and flair is what describes Louise. A total of 32 products including Eleanor Armoire, Louise Bar Unit, Louise Bed Bench, Louise Console Table and Louise Chest Drawers are part of this timeless range that is spread across the living, dining, and bedroom spaces. The Louise chest of drawers is made from mango wood in a vintage brown oak finish. Smooth wooden drawer pulls, turned legs inspired by a vintage French era, and striking waves and knots in wood all add to the elegance of this design. Eleanor armoire contains four shelves with a glass front with patterned curtains to keep your treasures hidden from view. It is adorned with brass-finish handles and moulded cornices.

WISMA ATRIA INTERIORS

The unique Colosseo sideboard from the Italian brand Arte Brotto is part of their Palazzi collection. The Palazzi collection translates the unmistakable beauty of the Italian architectural masterpieces in furniture that impress with the precise inlay and compliance with the proportions of the monuments that inspire them. The mesmerizing design of Colosseo is therefore a result of careful study of appropriate wood essences and optimization of design for the purpose of imaging performance and industrial production. Made from solid wood, the two separate cabinets (shaped like uneven trapeziums) can hold household wares and crockery in an organized manner. This piece of furniture is perfect to give a calm, compost and rich historic touch to any room in your home.
